

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

BY REV. P. H. FITZWATER, D. D.
Text: "And he took them to the shore, and he said unto them: 'Come ye hither, and I will teach you of things which pertain unto the kingdom of heaven and of the kingdom of earth.'"

LESSON FOR MARCH 23

ISAIAH WARNED AGAINST COM-
PROMITISE.

May be used with Temperance Applications.

LESSON TEXT: Isaiah 1:1-18.

Golden Text: "Forasmuch as ye are desirous to keep the commandments, ye shall love the commandments which I have written in the book of the law."

Readings: Isaiah 1:1-18; Isaiah 2:1-5; Isaiah 58:1-7.

Primary Topic: Loving and obeying the commandments.

Junior Topic: Hearing up to the word of God.

Intermediate Topic: Dangerous compromise.

Lesson: Isaiah, knowing that his life was drawing to a close, summoned the leaders of Israel to appear before him. He knew the tendencies which the nation was developing and he laid out for them the path which he believed would lead to the kingdom of God.

Letters From France

They or two. The Y. M. C. A. gave us some chocolate and cigarettes yesterday, we also had a friend feed at our mess hall, so I am making it all right.

Guess times are better around Appomattox since the war stopped.

Guess all of the girls are married; haven't heard from any of them since I came over. Why should I worry? Tell Courtney not to get married until I get back, want him and I to live one more time. Guess Willie and Willie were up to you Christmas; give them my love; hope to see them soon.

Guess Papa is at home now too. You said you were sending me some home papers; I have not got them yet; will be glad to get them and hear the news around there.

Say, is Buller living yet? If she is, take good care of her. You said you were sending me some home papers; I have not got them yet; will be glad to get them and hear the news around there.

Give grandmama and Millie my love; would love to see them. Wish them a happy New Year. Answer soon.
